Educational Grants Allow Diplomates Access to CME Resources from Select Professional Societies

September 22, 2020

The ABPN is pleased to announce that all ABPN diplomates, regardless of areas of subspecialty certification or society membership, will now have access to additional self-assessment and CME options from select professional societies at either typical member pricing or at no cost.

“During this most difficult time, it is more important than ever for physicians to maintain their ability to provide quality patient care. The ABPN is very pleased to be able to work with our professional societies to ensure that the needed CME resources are available to help ABPN diplomates maintain their competence,” said Larry R. Faulkner, MD, ABPN President and CEO.

Through unrestricted educational grants from the ABPN, the following societies have posted or will post additional information on how diplomates can access activities to earn additional credits:

- Academy of Consultation-Liaison Psychiatry (ACLP)
- American Academy of Addiction Psychiatry (AAAP)
- American Academy of Psychiatry and the Law (AAPL)
- American Association for Geriatric Psychiatry (AAGP)
- American Association of Neuromuscular and Electrodiagnostic Medicine (AANEM)
- American Clinical Neurophysiology Society (ACNS)
- American Epilepsy Society (AES)
- Child Neurology Society (CNS)
- Neurocritical Care Society (NCS)

Visit the COVID-19 page on the ABPN website for a list of current activities offered along with links to more information. Diplomates can also visit the individual society website directly.

Please continue to check this page on the ABPN website for periodic updates from the societies that are participating.
